FNIA | First Nations Inspection Authority

Electrical Safety Codes Officer (Part-Time / Transitionary)

Shape the Future of Safety with First Nations Inspection Authority (FNIA). We are industry leaders, fostering a positive work environment built on respect and integrity.

Position Summary: Ensure electrical safety and compliance by conducting inspections, reviewing plans, and enforcing regulations. This is a regular, scheduled part-time position designed to progressively scale up as a current team member transitions into a different role. It offers a clear pathway to permanent, full-time employment as operational needs expand.

Details:

- Location: Edmonton & surrounding area and Indigenous communities (travel required).
- Hours: Part-time (Variable, scheduled).
- Salary: Competitive Industry Range $33.88 – $59.27 per hour.
- Signing Bonus: $5,000.00
- Allowances: Out of Province applications accepted, subject to certification with the Safety Codes Council of AB. Relocation allowance to be discussed for the ideal/successful candidate.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct comprehensive electrical inspections to ensure compliance.
- Review plans, specifications, and technical documents.
- Enforce the Safety Codes Act and relevant codes.
- Respond to safety complaints and conduct investigations.
- Prepare technical inspection reports and build relationships with stakeholders.
- Issue permits.

Qualifications & Skills:

- Registered Electrical Safety Codes Officer in Alberta (Must be in good standing with the Safety Codes Council of Alberta).
- Electrical Group A Certification (Safety Codes Council of Alberta).
- Culturally aware team player with a customer-centric approach.
- Strong technical, communication, and problem-solving skills.
- Impartial decision-making and a keen eye for detail.
- Valid driver's license and willingness to travel.

Benefits:

- Extended health benefits including dental, massage therapy, chiropractic care, and more.
- Accrued vacation pay and statutory holiday entitlements (as per Alberta Employment Standards).
- Make a meaningful contribution to community safety and reconciliation with Indigenous communities.
- Work alongside a passionate, diverse, and inclusive team.
- Opportunities for professional development and growth with a rapidly growing company.

For more information and to submit a Resume and Cover Letter, please contact:

www.fnia.ca | nathan@fnia.ca